MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR

The journey at International Management Institute Kolkata has been immensely exciting. I thank all of you for being a part of it. I have known so many of you through my interactions with you at different stages of your duration at IMI Kolkata and meeting you is always a delightful experience.

In a span of five years, our graduates have become global citizens. I firmly believe that all of you nurture mutual pride and a sense of achievement. I am glad that all of you are environmentally and socially conscious human beings looking at creating an environmentally sustainable world. You are our greatest ambassadors!

All of you are important stakeholders of this B-school and this Institute is as much yours as it is ours. We must keep reinventing the path we are walking on and strive to better this Institute every day.

It is important to note that the impact of disruptions due to technological change has impacted firms widely. Thus it is important for managers and other stakeholders to recognize the characteristics and patterns of disruptions. It is needless to mention that this may contribute to undesirable outcomes, if such patterns are not identified and understood. Counter measures to mitigate the risk of disruptions have a cost. Any form of disruption may impose the greatest risk to firm's value. It is believed that with access to such knowledge, managers may be able to assess firms' investment opportunities appropriately, to mitigate the predominant material risks. IMIK's academic objectives are mostly in the light of many disruptions we often observe in the businesses. In fact, our focus on Asian values and business practices may indicate the guidelines to project us as a rising star in the Asian context.

Your association with IMI Kolkata is lifelong and cannot be limited by your physical presence on the campus. This is your Alma Mater and this Institute will always be a part of all that life has to offer you. I also welcome your constructive suggestions in all the dimensions of IMI Kolkata. I am looking forward to meeting you through different alumni events.

Let us all join hands and work towards taking IMI Kolkata to newer heights.

Wish you the best!
